2 Everyone deserves a fair opportunity to compete, regardless of gender identity

Chess is a game of intellect and skill, and everyone deserves a fair opportunity to compete, regardless of gender identity

3 This initiative aims to break barriers, promote inclusivity, and encourage transgender players to participate in competitive chess without fear of discrimination

4 By organizing this historic event, we hope to inspire future tournaments worldwide to embrace inclusivity and representation.

5 We invite transgender chess players from across India and beyond to participate, compete, and make history with us.

6 This tournament will be a landmark moment for diversity in sports, demonstrating that chess is truly for everyone.

7 Free entry

No entry fees will be charged for transgender participants in their exclusive championship, ensuring inclusivity and honoring their contributions.

World's First Chess Tournament Recognizing Transgender Players

1 In honor of our brave defense personnel, we are organizing a special chess tournament exclusively for them.

2 Assam University has always respected and commemorated the sacrifices of our defense forces, as reflected in our Defense Museum, which stands as a tribute to their courage and dedication.

3 This tournament is an extension of that tribute, providing a unique opportunity for members of the armed forces to showcase their strategic and tactical skills on the chessboard.

4 Chess, much like military strategy, requires precision, planning, and foresight, making this tournament a perfect way to celebrate the intellectual strength of our soldiers.

5 Through this event, we aim to express our gratitude to our nation's protectors and foster a deeper connection between the academic and defense communities.

6 We invite serving personnel, veterans, and defense academy cadets to participate in this landmark event, reinforcing the mutual respect between academia and the armed forces

7 Free Entry

No entry fees will be charged for defense personnel in their exclusive championship, ensuring inclusivity and honoring their contributions.

Dedicated Chess Tournament for Defense Personnel
